

There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars...

This is a difficult time. From Global Warming to ISIS Terrorism, a shadow falls over the earth. Perhaps since World War II and its countless atrocities, have we ever witnessed such danger and so much savagery.

So Advent, the season of Hope, Yearning, and Anticipation is needed more than ever.