

Even at night his mind is not at rest. Vanity of vanities...

Jesus today speaks about those who store up treasure for themselves, but are not rich in what matters to God..."

And the First reading is about the anxieties of the greedy....those who have too much worry about having more, and worry about losing what they have:

"Vanity of vanities!"