

Follow me!

There is hardly anything mordramatic in the gospels than the call of the Apostles.

And then tHey left their boat, thelrÂ nets, and they followed him.

Once upon a time, most of us as children were carried into church, and our name for the first time in public WE WERE ALSO CALLED!

And so we pray:

Yes! Lord.

You have called me by name!

Here I am Lord.

Here I am!
