

From My New Book: "Together..."

Easter Dawning...Prophet's Warning

Saturday, first resting day, Saturday, Mary's Day. Saturday Earth's Day, Jesus Earthbound.

Buried a potent seed in the fertile womb of earth, Christ seeded in Mary, now seeded in clay.

Jesus rests in fertile garden beneath a black soil quilt. rock hewn walls await the Easter Light.

Mary waits in joyful hope in the shadow of the cross. Her heart--sword pierced, but not forsaken.

With the Sky Lark's song, and Magladen's "Alleluia!" Mary's heart leaps for joy. Her soul magnifies the Lord.

Children of the Earth, Global Warming plagues our Home. Be awake on Easter Morning! Phophets' warning be our dawning!
