

You lead sheep.

In my youth I worked at the stock yards.

You drive hogs.

You drive cattle.

But you lead sheep.

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday.

In our times, the sheep are bedraggled, dispersed, confused by "alternate facts."

A man named Francis tries to gather the flock.

A teenage shepherd prophetess named Greta tries to warn the sheep.

If you have not seen her on Public TV, do not miss her.

"Children of the Earth!

Global warming plagues our earth home.

Be awake on Easter Morning!

Prophet's warning, be our dawning!
