

A Liturgical Trifecta!

Â

Imagine Christ in all his glory.

Thomas Aquinas describes this as the Beatific Vision.

see him surrounded by all the Saints.

not just the famous ones from the history books.

But the ones you and I knew, Shirley and Tom, Mom, and Dad, all the ones that injected love into our lives.

and then imagine the vestibule.

those are the Souls Of those waiting to be ushered into their places.

and there you have it: Christ the King, All Saints, All Souls.

Halloween really means Holy Eve!

The ancient Celts celebrated this as a Thin Time when all the dead hovered very close.

Feel their presence.

Rejoice in their victory.

They shall reign with Christ The King!

Â

Â

Â

Â

Â

a Thin Time” when all the departed draw very close.

Â

Â

Â

Â